

EVERY WIFE FALLEN OUT OF LOVE WITH HER HUSBAND BLOOMS IN NEW LOVE FOR ANOTHER

SOMETIMES A ROSE WILL DRAW ITS SUSTINANCE FROM ONE GARDEN AND SHED ITS FRAGRANCE OVER THE FENCE TO A NEIGHBOR.

BY NIXOLA GREELEY-SMITH

New York, March 16.—Does every married woman's heart flower into love a second time?

Does every wife, fallen out of love with her husband, achieve a second blooming in a great and glorious passion for another man?

She does, according to the latest novel of the young English novelist, W. L. George.

This brilliant yet profound study